

ARI Phase Movement Checklist

In order to move from one phase to another, certain minimum requirements must be met. Once completed, you may make written application to your case manager. You must explain why you feel you are ready to move to the next phase. This includes moving from phase three to graduation. The Adult Redeploy Court Team will review your request individually and movement is at the discretion of the Adult Redeploy Court Team. If you are unable to complete any requirement, you must provide explanation as to why you should be exempt.
